

RECIPIENTS OF THE PRESIDENTIAL TEACHING SCHOLAR AWARDS

Established by President Art Smith in 1992, the Presidential Teaching Scholar Award recognizes excellence in undergraduate teaching. In 1997 this award was merged with the University Distinguished Teaching Award.

1992-1993

Robert K. Avery	Communication
Noel H. de Nevers	Chemical and Fuels Engineering
Allan A. Ekdale	Geology
Janice Frost	Liberal Education
Robert A. Goldberg	History
David A. Kranes	English
Mark T. Nielson	Biology
Peter W. Phillips	Economics
Anne Riordan	Modern Dance
James T. Svendsen	Languages and Literature

1993-1994

Irwin Altman	Psychology
William H. Breckenridge	Chemistry
David S. Chapman	Geology & Geophysics
Susan H. Duehlmeier	Music
Thomas E. Malloy	Psychology
L. Jackson Newell	Educational Administration
Stephanie Pace	Liberal Education
Barbara J. Richards	Health Education
Debra L. Scammon	Marketing
Mary S. Strine	Communication

1994-1995

Susan A. Chesteen	Management
Ann W. Engar	Undergraduate Studies
William Epstein	Chemistry
Brooke Hopkins	English
L. King Isaacson	Mechanical Engineering
Nancy Nickman	Pharmacy Practice
William T. Parry	Geology & Geophysics
Patricia A. Reagan	Health Education
Ronald M. Smelser	History
Joseph L. Zachary	Computer Science

1995-1996

Winthrop L. T. Adams	History
Calvin M. Boardman	Finance
Margaret Katheryne Brady	English

Christine M. Brzezowski	Chemistry
K. Larry DeVries	Engineering
Gene D. Fitzgerald	Languages and Literature
Mark H. Matheson	English
David B. Roll	Pharmacy
Kathryn Bond Stockton	English
Donald H. Tucker	Mathematics

1996-1997

Carolyn Bliss	Liberal Education
B. Gale Dick	Physics
Christopher R. Johnson	Computer Science
Yukio Kachi	Philosophy
Thomas B. Kass	Architecture
Theresa Martinez	Sociology
Susan Miller	English
Thomas G. Richmond	Chemistry
L. Edna Rogers	Communication
Wilfred D. Samuels	English