

COMMUNITY ENGAGED SCHOLARSHIP & TEACHING AWARD RECIPIENTS

The CES Award recognizes and rewards a University of Utah faculty member of any rank for high quality work that integrates teaching, research and community engagement. The award recognizes faculty who show a record of successful teaching and research that is carried out through long-term, collaborative community-engaged partnerships that address a community-identified need or priority.

2018 Rosemarie Hunter, College of Social Work

2019 Yda Smith, Department of Occupational & Recreational Therapies

2020 Tino Nyawelo, Department of Physics & Astronomy